WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, JULY 24, 1909.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

BUSINESS.

Let's open up a little shop,
With happiness for sale,
Shut down the sorrow factory,
With all its dismal wail.

We'll buy a stock of cheerfulness,
And pile it on the shelves,
And just to start the cheery fad,
Let's buy a frock ourselves!

Of patient, honest effort
We'll make a fine display,
And wrap a help-thought circular,
In each package sent away.

And when we balance up our books,
With their debit, credit sides,
And the charge to rich experience
We'll a fortune realize.

—Pauline Johnson.

Prof. H. C. Barnes Issues Statement to the Public Concerning His Domestic Affairs

To The Public Ledger: For the benefit of a few of my good friends in Maysville who have been rather free to interrogate myself and others as to why my wife was not with me during my sojourn in your city, allow me to state that long since she decided for reasons best known to herself and to me that it was best for us to live apart.

I regret very much to make this statement, but it seems that it has become necessary; therefore I make it regardless of future comment.

A FOOL THERE WAS

Who Shot His Sister-in-Law—Didn't Know It Was Loaded

Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

That same old story had another victim Sunday on Anderson Branch, Muse Precinct, when 16-year-old Squire Gully was snapping a 33 at the back of his sister-in-law when it went off, the ball lodging in her back and inflicting a wound which it was feared would prove fatal.

At last reports she has a fair chance for recovery.

At Cincinnati this afternoon the Ohio River Launch Club will have the greatest series of motor boat races ever held on the river. In the contest for the Fleischman Cup for 20-mile speed boats the Br'er Fox, Idlewild, Idler and Uncle Pete will not have a cinch. There is one boat entered which will be watched by knowing ones. The name of this boat is the Hoosier Boy, and those who have seen this new launch say it is a wonder, in fact, the only perfect motor boat on the Ohio river. The Hoosier Boy was built by J. W. Whitlock, millionaire boat builder of Rising Sun, Ind., and cost $5,000. It is reported that in a test the boat showed a speed of 40 miles an hour.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English; or, Medicine Simplified, 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations, newly revised up-to-date Edition, paper-bound, sent for 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

RUGGLES CAMPMEETING

Ledger Correspondent Writes Entertainingly of What's Going On

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 22d, 1909.

Editor of Public Ledger: This being the first day, things are a little bit unsettled, as people are coming in continually, so that at the present writing nearly all cottages are full. There is a fine lot of folks out here; everybody is sociable and there seems to be an intense desire to make this an unusually good Campmeeting.

The improvements made to the grounds and buildings during the year are very noticeable and quite substantial. The hotel and confectionery are very comfortable and cozy looking, the new icecream parlor to the confectionery being especially nice, sure to attract the girls—and boys who have the coin to spend on the girls—and, by the way, there's the sweetest looking lot of girls out here we've seen for quite a spell.

For the opening day the weather has been fine and conditions, in all respects, quite favorable.

It is always in order to tell who is here from Maysville, which good city always sends a large delegation to this place.

The following are here at present: Mr. and Mrs. John Crane, Mrs. I. M. Lane, Mrs. J. H. Dodson, the Misses Bierbower, Miss Esther Hutchins, W. B. Tully and family, Mrs. Joe Simons and family, Mrs. George Harding, Mrs. N. C. Rudy and son, Lane, M. A. Wallingford, Mrs. Sam Porter and daughters, William "Bloomer" Smith, Mrs. C. B. Pearce and sisters, Mrs. J. Ed. Garrett, the Misses Bryant, J. H. Richardson and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Kreutz, Mrs. Gault, Miss Anna King and nieces, the Misses Duzan, Mrs. W. O. Bradford and Mrs. Bradley and family.

From a distance we have with us: Mrs. C. E. Choate and children of Atlanta, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davidson of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati; Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Fetter of Cincinnati, Mrs. G. W. Buntun of Covington, Mrs. J. A. Chapman and children of Newport, John Bentz of West Covington, Horace Lloyd of Cincinnati.

Ministers present are: Rev. G. W. Buntun, District Superintendent, who, with Rev. J. M. Ackman of the Ashland District, will have charge of all services; Rev. J. A. Chapman of Newport, Rev. William Jones of Covington, Rev. Grant Perkins of Latonia, Rev. F. W. Harrop of our own city.

The services will be at the following hours: Prayer service at 6 a. m.; sermon with praise service at 10 a. m.; children's service at 1:30 p. m.; young people's meeting at 3 p. m., and Evangelistic services at 7:30 p. m.

The service at 10 o'clock this morning was the opening service of the meeting and was in charge of Rev. G. W. Buntun. The meeting opened with some enthusiastic singing and after a few appropriate introductory remarks by the leader he called on the following persons for five-minute talks on the subjects opposite their names. These subjects concern some things that are very necessary to the success of a Campmeeting.

Singing—J. H. Richardson.
Prayer—Rev. M. A. Wallingford.
Testimony—J. A. Chapman.
Preaching—Rev. F. W. Harrop.
Attendance—Rev. William Jones.

Some changes have been made in those who help in the services. Mrs. Grant Perkins of Latonia is the organist; W. P. Bowman of Vanceburg is the cornetist, and Miss Nannie Porter of Ludlow is in charge of the children's services. With this array of talent everything ought to move right off from the start.

The Rev. William Jones of Covington preached at 7:30, closing a very good opening day.

As this correspondence will likely appear in Saturday's issue, it is in order to announce what we have for Sunday. At 9 a. m. Mr. I. M. Lane will conduct the praise service; at 10:30 the Rev. J. A. Chapman, the popular Pastor of Grace Church, Newport, will preach; at 2 p. m. Rev. J. M. Ackman, District Superintendent of the Ashland District, will preach, and at 7:30 our own inimitable, ever ready and willing Pastor, the Rev. F. W. Harrop, will preach. Now come on and see if we haven't provided an interesting and enjoyable day for you.

The many friends and admirers of our mutual friend, Will Elmer "Bloomer" Smith, the phenomenal baseball player, will be surprised and gratified to hear that he is a charter member of the Campmeeting choir. "Bloomer" says, "No more baseball in his while Campmeeting is in session."

The genial and always welcome face of Dr. William Bowman of Tellerboro was seen among the late arrivals.

We've seen "The Sign of the Dish Rag."

SINGS IN CONCERT

Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth
Before Los Angeles Audience

The issue of Wednesday, July 21st, of The Musical Courier, the excellent New York magazine which contains everything of interest in musical circles of this country and of Europe, contained the following among its Los Angeles notes, which brings into prominence Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth of this city—

"The last concert of the Ellis Club (male chorus) was one of the best ever given by this fine organization. J. B. Poulin was the conductor. The program consisted of "War Song" (Edgar Thorne), "Clouds," "Sunshine" (Schelling), Neidinger's "O Mother Mine," "The Ballad's Daughter" (Cutter), "Song of Araby" (Protheroe), Dudley Buck's "Twilight" and "To the Genius of Music" (Mahr), in which Florence Pearce Wadsworth sang incidental soprano solos. She also sang an aria from "Madam Butterfly" and the "Jewel Song" from "Faust." The Ellis Club numbers sixty members and gives four concerts yearly. The financial support of the Club is derived solely from associate members elected by active Club members."

TRUTH TRIUMPHS.

Maysville Citizens Testify for the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Maysville citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney ills, the cure is at hand. Read this:

Mrs. John T. Wallingford, 108 Commerce street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with most beneficial results and it gives me pleasure to corroborate the testimonial we gave in their favor some years ago. Doan's Kidney Pills afforded me great relief from kidney disorders and I have no hesitation in again recommending them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
